Description:

Expanded from a traditional New England Cape, Seaglass is rich with history and charm and boasts impressive views of the outer islands and beyond. The original part of the house, floated over from Gott's Island in the 1800's, has since been expanded and renovated bringing the estate to what it is today. Charmingly decorated with a nautical inspired theme, this home is extremely well appointed. There are several private guest suites, whether in the main house or in one of the delightfully hospitable outbuildings. The furnished deck leads to an expansive front lawn with a deep water dock and float beyond. Just a short drive from Southwest Harbor's village center, The Causeway Club, and hiking trails. This home is perfect for an active group, or those who simply want to relax on the stunning front deck.

The property is composed of the Main House with attached guest suite (The Seadog), a three car garage with apartment located above (The Nest), and one bedroom cottage close-by at end of driveway (The Perch).

MAIN HOUSE (3 bedrooms for a maximum occupancy of 8)

FIRST FLOOR: Foyer opens to a spacious and beautifully decorated sunken living room with fireplace, several seating areas including a game table and water views.
